THE MOST COMMON AILMENT.

More people suffer from rheumatism than from any other ailment. This is wholly unnecessary too, for a cure may be effected at a very small cost. G. W. Westcott, of Meadowdale, N. Y., says: "I have been afflicted with rheumatism for some time and it has caused me much suffering. I concluded to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm and am pleased to say that it has cured me." The extra machinery is on the ground and the men are expected the latter part of this week. The well of Miss Phoebe Crutchfield was broken in circuit court. She left an estate valued in the neighborhood of $1,200 to some ladies here who had been especially kind to her. The suit to break the will was brought by Mrs. Agnes Calvert, of Perryville, the nearest living relative. John H. Meier and O. M. Huffman have purchased from O. P. Huffman his meat market on Main street, east of Mainini's restaurant—Advocate.

AN ANGRY COLONEL.

Col. Jones has given up for awhile his favorite pastime, that of pursuing the columns of the INTERIOR JOURNAL. We are sorry to lose him, "but it's an ill wind, etc." He says he is darned tired of being fooled into commencing an item he thinks will be interesting reading and at its conclusion finding it to be a clever article on Col. Carter's Liver Pills, Lemjor's Liver Pads or a jolly to a weak-minded woman from old hide Plunkham.

He came into the office this morning and canceled his subscription to the paper, saying that he ran foul of whole pages lately that "cooked his goose."

for good and he was going back to the Vicar of Wakefield and Children of the Abbey, whose venerated authors he had a clinch on, they had been dead so long.

He certainly was the picture of an angry gentleman, as adjusting his eyeglasses and calling off from his note book he informed us, with an oath, that in the past three days he had been fooled into presuming three thrilling love stories, some entralling gossip about a Baralups that he had not heard of since he quit reading the Bible and a lot of other stuff, all winding up with the information that they would all be seen with the Sells & Dow's Big Shows at Stanford, Monday, May 12.

WON'T FOLLOW ADVICE AFTER PAYING FOR IT.

In a recent article a prominent physician says, "It is next to impossible for the physician to get his patients to carry out any prescribed course of hygiene or diet to the smallest extent; he has but one resource left, namely, the drug treatment."

Hamilton, Matt Siler and the blood hounds were telephoned for but no clew has been found.

At the Lincoln Oil, Gas & Mineral Co., has about 3,000 acres of land leased in Lincoln county, Ky. The larger portion of this lease is contiguous to the M. S. Baughman farm—a portion in the neighborhood of Maywood and Sugar Grove sections and still another portion skirting Logan's Creek. "One of the surest indications of the probable value of undeveloped oil lands is the result of efforts at development on land adjoining." None of the stock reserved by the incorporators can be issued by them until the entire amount so reserved has been sold, and when sold every dollar arising therefrom will be used in developing the company's holdings. No officer or director draws a salary from the company or will receive any compensation for his time and labor unless by good management the entire stock of the company is rendered valuable by reason of the untiring efforts of the officers and directors. THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

E. C. WALTON.

W. P. WALTON.

Is a candidate for Railroad Commissioner for the 2d District, subject to the will of the democracy.

H. H. HENNINGER,

Of Wayne County, is a candidate for State Treasurer, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

REPRESENTATIVE Stephen F. Morgan, of the tenth Ohio district, has just been renominated, and inasmuch as his district is nearly 10,000 Republican, will be re-elected. Mr. Morgan is the silent man of congress. He served in the fifty-sixth and in the present congress and the most careful research fails to disclose that he has ever opened his mouth, either on the floor or in committee, for any purpose except to answer his name on a call of the roll. As a member of the committee on Indian affairs, he sits through session, listening to what is passing around him, but never joining in the discussion. When his colleagues attempt to secure his opinion about some pending matter he gives it usually in a whisper. As a rule it is the quiet man who gets there, but Mr. Morgan seems to be an exception. The man who makes the most noise and talks the loudest is generally considered the smartest, and in nine cases out of 10 he forgets to the front, while the man who has sense enough to hold his peace gets left in the race.

GRAND and glorious old Admirat Schley made the following statement regarding the death of Admiral Sampson: "I regret very much the death of Admiral Sampson and I sympathize with his family. No one has ever heard me utter one unkind word of him. On account of his death I have requested my friends in Baltimore to postpone the delivery to me, which was intended to take place to-night, of the Cristobal Colon service of silver, and they have granted my request." Verily the old hero is of the salt of earth. A great soldier, but a far greater man is he.

VEGETABLE dinners, at which no meat of any kind is used or served, are fast becoming a fad in Washington. A lady who gave an elegant dinner informed her guests that the meat trust was not necessary to a successful dinner and asked them how they liked the one just served. They were surprised to find that not one morsel of meat was included in the menu, which was full of the choicest dishes. Stanford ladies might try the experiment with pleasure and profit.

ADMIRAL SAMPSON is dead. Poor man! He rendered the country some capable services, but his effort to prove that he won the battle of Santiago harbor was so abortive that his death was doubtless due to disappointment in having the American people rebel against the naval court of inquiry that gave him the honor and took it from the real hero, Winfield Scott Schley.

THE doctors will get $31,000 out of the $50,000 appropriated for the obsequies of McKinley and it is said they will be satisfied to take it and make no further effort to squeeze the government. They wanted a great deal more, but even the amount allowed is outrageously large. Not telling what their bill would have been had the president lived.

W. A. GAINES, of Covington, the colored special deputy in the revenue service, has been "fired" by Commissioner Yerkes and Albert S. White, of Louisville, has been given the job. As it is a case of Negro succeeding Negro the public will lose no sleep over the change.

There are 420,000 pensions claims pending before the pension department and now that Commissioner Evans has been gotten out of the way every one of these claimants thinks he has a "good thing,"—C. J.

It is said that President Roosevelt will make several speeches in the South during the coming Congressional campaign. The democratic party just nigger-dares him to take his friend Booker Washington along with him.—Glasgow Times.

A large delegation of Boer sympathizers appeared before a subcommittee of the House committee on Foreign Affairs and urged the adoption of a resolution asking President Roosevelt to send Great Britain an expression of sympathy for the Boers and expressing the hope that the war would be ended.

Gov. Davis, of Arkansas, has pardoned a Negro convicted of assault with intent to kill. The pardon is on condition that the Negro take up his residence in Massachusetts. The governor says he is moved to this action by the expressions of sympathy for the "poor oppressed Negro" which he heard in the North on a recent visit.

The Frankfort Journal says the withdrawal of Lt. Gov. Carter from the Congressional race in the Eighth district insures the renomination of Hon. G. G. Gilbert. Not on your life. Mr. Gilbert may get the nomination but there is no assurance of it. If he wins over Hon. R. C. Warren, of Lincoln, he will not do so on flowery beds of ease, but will have to sail through bloody seas and travel the rough road of Jordan to do so, for Mr. Warren is somewhat of a sprinter himself.—Lexington Democrat.

Ten of as fair young ladies as ever graced a stage will contest for the handsome prizes. Entries have closed. The managers have arranged with Farris & Hardin for the banquet to be given in honor of the contestants and their escorts.

THANKS.—Miss Lizzie Beazley, of the faculty of the C. W. B. M. College at Morehead, sends us by express, pre-paid, a sample of the brooms made by the boys of that splendid school. The profits on these brooms go toward defraying the expenses of educating the boys at that institution and as they are splendidly made and sell at the same figures other brooms do, friends of the Christian Women's Board of Missions should buy the "C. W. B. M." broom and urge others to do so. It is likely one or more of the Stanford merchants will handle this broom.

REINHART.—Mr. J. S. Reinhardt died Wednesday afternoon after a short illness, aged 74. Softening of the brain was the immediate cause of his death, although his sickness began with grippe. Mr. Reinhardt was born in Germany but lived at Paducah many years before coming to Stanford. Although never uniting with the church he was a firm believer in the divinity and always said that a good Mason was bound to be a Christian. He stood high in Masonry and a telegram was received from Paducah yesterday morning by that order that he was in good standing and that the lodge here do whatever it could to relieve the distressed. Mr. Reinhardt was the father of Mr. E. L. Reinhardt and had lived with him since the death of his wife. He was a kind-hearted, clever old gentleman and had many friends here who deeply regret his demise. Rev. R. R. Noel conducted short services at the grave in Buffalo cemetery at 2:30 yesterday afternoon, after which the body was laid to rest by the side of his wife.

BORN, to the wife of Sheriff M. S. Baughman, last night, a son. He will take the position of first deputy to his father as soon as an appropriate name can be found for the fine youngster.

THE graduating class of Stanford Female College has ordered through this office the finest engraved invitations the Courier Journal Job Printing Office could get out. They come high, but then the average young lady doesn't graduate more than once.

OIL has not been struck in the Baughman well No. 2, but it seems that it is only a question of time until the fluid is found. The formations encountered have all indicated oil and a rich flow is hourly expected. A depth of 680 feet has been reached.

AN Italian woman has been found who is the mother of 62 children. It would be interesting indeed to know how she managed to go through it all, especially to those parents who have 60 or so less, and yet have all of their time taken up to watch and care for them.

THE officers of the Second Christian church, colored, have engaged Contractor J. A. Allen to repair their church to the extent of $150, and the following members have been selected to solicit contributions to pay for the repairs: Richard Thurman, Alex Rose, Alex Thurman, Emma Allison, Green Gentry, Mandy Burdett, Annie Givens. A. J. Robinson is pastor of this church.

NOTHING is being left undone to make the 9th annual elocutionary contest, which will be held here June 20, surpass all previous efforts. The prizes will be the most expensive ever offered here and the best talent in the State will take part. Seats are already being spoken for and the people will show by their large attendance that they appreciate Mr. Beazley's efforts. The contests in which he has been interested have all been conducted with the utmost fairness, which accounts for the success of them.

RATS!—The rat editor of the Danville Advocate asks the readers of the following story to believe it: John Phillips, of Shelby City, had a battle with rats. He had a crib of corn which he was holding to sell when the price of the cereal became higher. An investigation proved that all of the corn had been devoured by the rats except a covering, which had been left for a blind. When Phillips discovered the exact condition of things, he was enraged and at once began to wage war against the rodents. They fought him viciously, but he came out victorious, killing 57 while 300 or 400 escaped. Two or three bit him on the right hand, but the wounds are not serious.

REID—Miss Elizabeth Withers Reid, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forestus Reid, of Danville, died at noon Tuesday, aged 17, and was buried in Bellevue cemetery yesterday afternoon after services at her late home by Eld. H. C. Garrison. Miss Reid was one of the prettiest and brightest girls in our knowledge and her death is one of the saddest in years. Just ready to graduate at Caldwell College, having won the honors of her class—valedictorian—it is indeed sad that she was thus cut down at a time when all the world was so bright and joyful to her, and when she was so much pleasure and the source of so much gratification to her fond parents and admiring friends. Just budding into beautiful womanhood, Miss Reid had a brilliant career in store, but he knew best and his call to come up Higher, though mysterious it seems, is evidently for the best. In her childhood she gave her heart to God and her life has been that of a true follower of the meek and lowly Nazarene. May those who sorrow soon realize that their loss is Miss Reid's eternal gain, and strive to meet her in the home where trouble does not enter, but where joy is supreme.

REINHART.—Mr. J. S. Reinhardt died Wednesday afternoon after a short illness, aged 74. Softening of the brain was the immediate cause of his death, although his sickness began with grippe. Mr. Reinhardt was born in Germany but lived at Paducah many years before coming to Stanford. GOOD LIVING

What often results in bad health, because what is termed "good living" is usually the gratification of the palate without reference to the nutrition of the body. When the good liver is a business man and rises from a full meal to plunge at once into work requiring mental effort the result is almost sure to be disastrous, because digestion draws upon the same nervous forces which are employed in thought. In time the stomach becomes diseased, the processes of digestion and nutrition are imperfectly performed and there is a physical breakdown.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion which originates in the system as a consequence of imperfect digestion. It gives sound health to the whole body.

"I wish to tell the world that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has proved a great blessing to me," writes Mrs. Ellen E. Bacon, of Shutesbury, Franklin Co., Mass. "Prior to September, 1897, I had doctor'd for my stomach trouble for several years, going through a course of diet with any real benefit. In September, 1896, I had very sick spells and grew worse; could eat but little. I commenced in September, 1897, to take Dr. Pierce's medicine, and in a short time I could eat and work. I have gained twenty pounds in two months."

FREE. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

BARBOURVILLE.—A few hours spent at Barbourville will impress any one that oil fields help a town. When we were there some two years ago the capital of Knox presented a dull, sleepy appearance, but since the "gushers" have "come in" things look far different. Hotels are crowded, livery stables are doing a rushing business, lawyers are busy looking up boundaries, etc., and the merchants are selling goods as they never did before. The L. & N. depot

Minor, Stephen and Marshall Ellis, Matt Wilcher, John Morganson and others attended court at Lebanon last week in the case of the Commonwealth against Reuben Goode for cutting Matt and Chas. Wilcher some time ago at Rush Branch church dedication, which resulted in a hung jury.

The appearance of a strange darky, who was complaining and bad been staying in Danville, aroused considerable excitement here last week until he was seen by physicians who diagnosed his case as pneumonia, which relieved the people. It is reported that Wm. Plummer, of near here, has been exposed to small-pox. The board of health should look after this matter at once.

A Deck of Cards for a Bible.

"How did you dare to bring those cards into the house of God?" said the Judge. "I use my cards for my Bible," said the sailor. "Use your cards for your Bible!" said the Judge. "How do you use them for your Bible?" "I will tell you," replied the sailor. "When I see the Ace it reminds me there is but one God; the Deuce reminds me of the Father and the Son; the Trey reminds me of the Father, Son and Holy Ghost; the Five reminds me of the wise Virgins—five were wise and five were foolish; the Six reminds me of the six days in which the world and all things were created; the Seven reminds me of the seventh day that He blessed and gave to us for our Sabbath; the Eight reminds me of the eight righteous persons who were saved in the Ark—Noah and his wife and three sons and their wives; the Nine reminds me of the nine unthankful lepers—ten were cleansed by Christ, nine never returned thanks; the Ten reminds me of the Ten Commandments that we are all commanded to obey. When I see the King I think of our Heavenly King. When I see the Queen it reminds me of the Queen of Sheba; she was a wise queen, as Solomon was a wise king. When I see the Jack it reminds me of the Devil, always ready to take a trick. When I count the spots on the deck I find there are 365, the number of days in the year. I find 52 cards, the number of weeks in a year. I find 12 face cards, the number of months in a year. I find four suits, the same as our four seasons."

NO LOSS OF TIME.

I have sold Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy for years, and would rather be out of coffee and sugar than it. I sold five bottles of it yesterday to threshers that could go no farther, and they are at work again this morning.—H. R. Phelps, Plymouth, Oklahoma. As will be seen by the above the threshers were able to keep on with their work without losing a single day's time. You should keep a bottle of this remedy in your home. Bank notes for about half a cent each each circulate freely in Paraguay. It takes two notes to get one's boots blacked and eight to pay the postage of a letter to England. Yet one of them will buy in season 15 oranges, three bananas or a watermelon.
